

Jefferson School

This beautiful brick building was built in 1889 and was one of Aberdeen first schools. Jefferson was the first school to be opened on the north side of the railroad tracks. It was located on North Washington where the Washington Street Gym is today.